

AUDIO. PROSTITUTE'S DESCRIPTION OF DAILY LIFE

The landlady provides bed linen – two pillows, one blanket, two bed sheets, and they are washed by the landlady at my own expense. Underwear, that is, panties, shirts, dresses, stockings and boots I have to buy for my own money, I also have to wash and keep myself healthy for my own money and I have to buy lighting myself; I pay 50 marks a day for food. I paid half for the room heating, that is, one day the landlady heats the room and the other day I have to heat it for my own money. I have not been given a bill book, the landlady makes a bill every morning – she takes half and I get half. There is nothing left of what I earn, I cannot even buy any clothes for myself, I have to pay fifty marks for washing the bed linen every day.
