

Most prostitutes have a basic or secondary education. In the 2016 survey, 76% of prostitutes were Russians, 17% were Estonians and 7% were of other nationalities. About a quarter of them had been raped as children. Nearly a third of the survey's respondents lived in a marriage or cohabitation with a permanent partner.