

According to the 2017 survey “Sexual Behaviour of the Estonian Adult Population”, 17% of men have had sexual intercourse in their lifetime that they paid for in cash or in some other way. Prostitutes are mostly visited by young and middle-aged men, three quarters of whom are married or cohabiting. Most clients of prostitutes are not tourists but locals.