KIEK IN DE K  K KINDLUSTUSTEMUUSEUM KIEK IN DE K  K FORTIFICATIONS MUSEUM

Kiek in de K  k Harjuv  rava m  elt. Postkaart 1905. TLM

Neljast tornist, kaitsekäiguga linnamüürist ja bastionikäikudest koosnev kindlustuste kompleks sisaldab ka suurepärase vaatega Neitsitorni kohvikut. Muuseum annab ülevaate Tallinna kaitsmisest ja sõjapidamisest läbi ajaloo ning kindlustuste saatusest rahuajal.

Kiek in de K k 1483

Baltimaade v imsaim keskaegne suurt kitorn, legendaarne lahingu-armidega kindlustorn on  ks Tallinna s mboleid.

The largest medieval artillery tower in the Baltic States, the legendary battle-scarred tower is one of the symbols of Tallinn.

Neitsitorn 1373

Unikaalne nelinurkne kaitsetorn, milles asub v rratu vaatega muuseumikohvik.

Maiden Tower

A unique rectangular tower, featuring a museum cafe with a magnificent view.

The fortification complex, with its four towers, city wall parapet and bastion passages has cafe commanding magnificent views in the Maiden Tower. The museum presents an overview of how Tallinn has been defended and war has been waged through the ages, as well as the role of the fortifications during peacetime.

Tallitorn 1380

 ks Tallinna v iksemaid kaitsetorne, kardetud vangi- ja vahitorn.

Marstal Tower

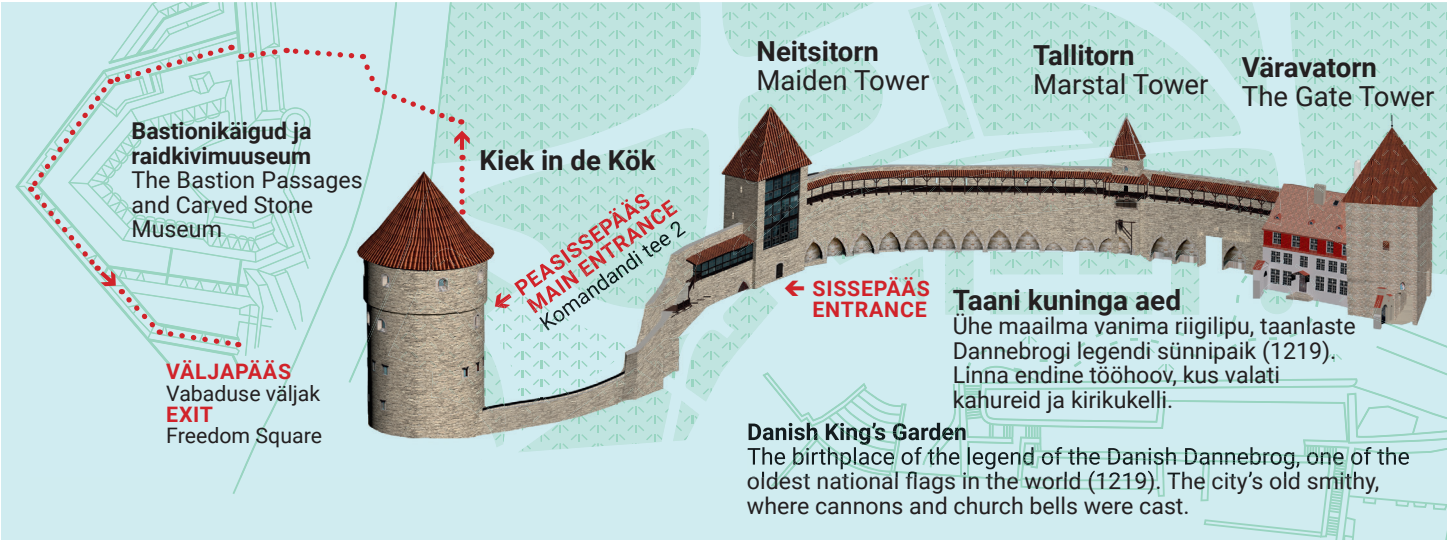

One of Tallinn's smallest towers, a much-feared dungeon and lookout tower.

V ravatorn 1454

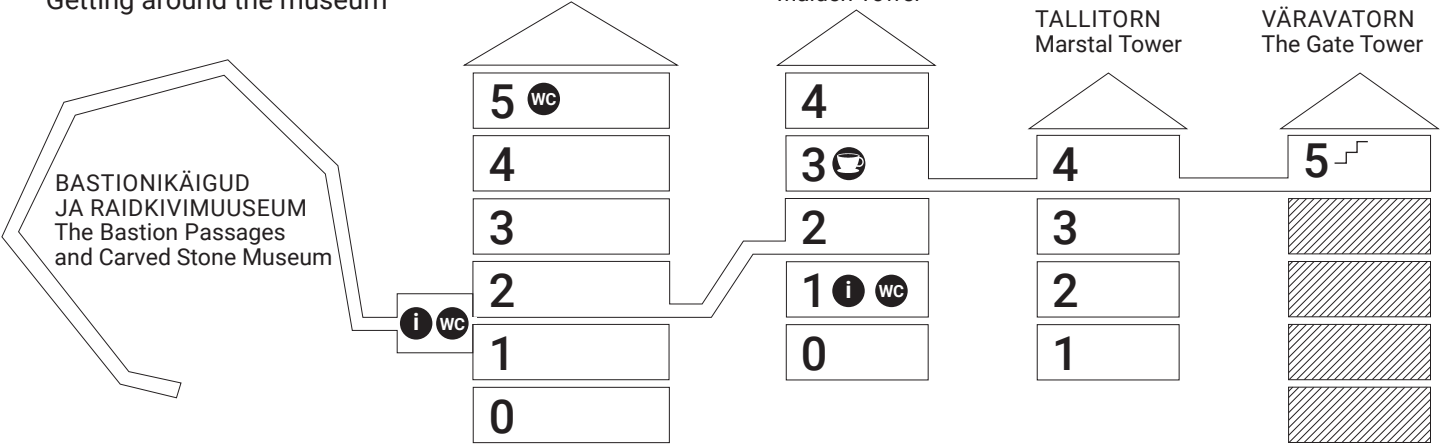

Toompea ja all-linna ajalooline  hendaja, v ravatorn, millega seostuvad Tallinna kuulsamad kummituslood.

The Gate Tower

The historical connection between Toompea and the Lower Town, a gate tower, which evokes Tallinn's most famous ghost stories.

Bastionik igud ja raidkivimuuseum
1710

Ingeri bastioni maa-alused k igud pakuvad p nevust ja salap ra. Bastionik ikudes asuv raidkivimuuseum tutvustab Tallinna kiviraidurite meistriteoseid.

The Bastion Passages and Carved Stone Museum

The underground passages of the Inger bastion offer excitement and mystery. The Carved Stone Museum in the bastion passages introduces the masterpieces of Tallinn's stone carvers.
