KIEK IN DE KÖK KINDLUSTUSTEMUUSEUM KIEK IN DE KÖK FORTIFICATIONS MUSEUM

Kiek in de Kök Harjuvärava mäelt. Postkaart 1905. TLM

Neljast tornist, kaitsekäiguga linnamüürist ja bastionikäikudest koosnev kindlustuste kompleks hõlmab ka suurepärase vaatega Neitsitorni kohvikut. Muuseum annab ülevaate Tallinna kaitsmisest ja sõjapidamisest läbi ajaloo ning kindlustuste saatusel rahuajal.

Kiek in de K  k (1483)

Baltimaade v  imsaim keskaegne suurt  kitorn, legendaarne lahingu-armidega kindlustorn ja   ks Tallinna s  mboleid.

The largest medieval artillery tower in the Baltic States, this legendary, battle-scarred landmark stands as one of Tallinn's most iconic symbols.

Neitsitorn (1373)

Unikaalne nelinurkne kaitsetorn, milles asub v  rratu vaatega muuseumikohvik.

Maiden Tower

A unique rectangular tower featuring a museum caf   with magnificent views.

The fortification complex, features four towers, city wall walks, and bastion passages, as well as a caf   in the Maiden Tower, offering breathtaking views. The museum explores how Tallinn was defended and wars were waged over the centuries, while also highlighting the fortifications' role during peacetime.

Tallitorn (1380)

  ks Tallinna v  iksemaid kaitsetorne, kardetud vangi- ja vahitorn.

Marstal Tower

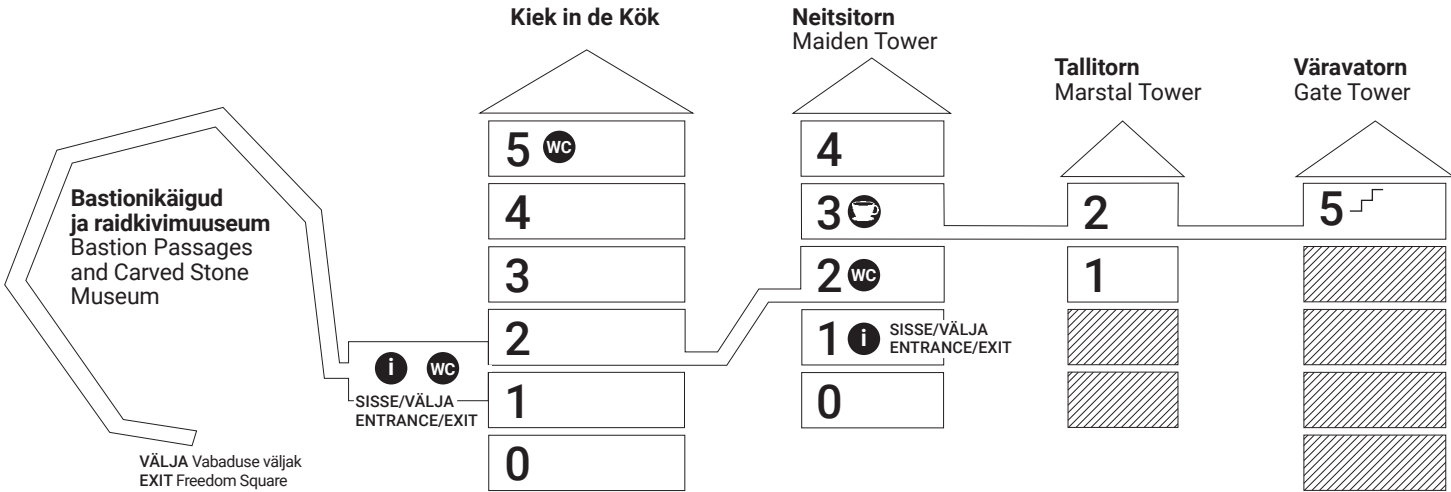

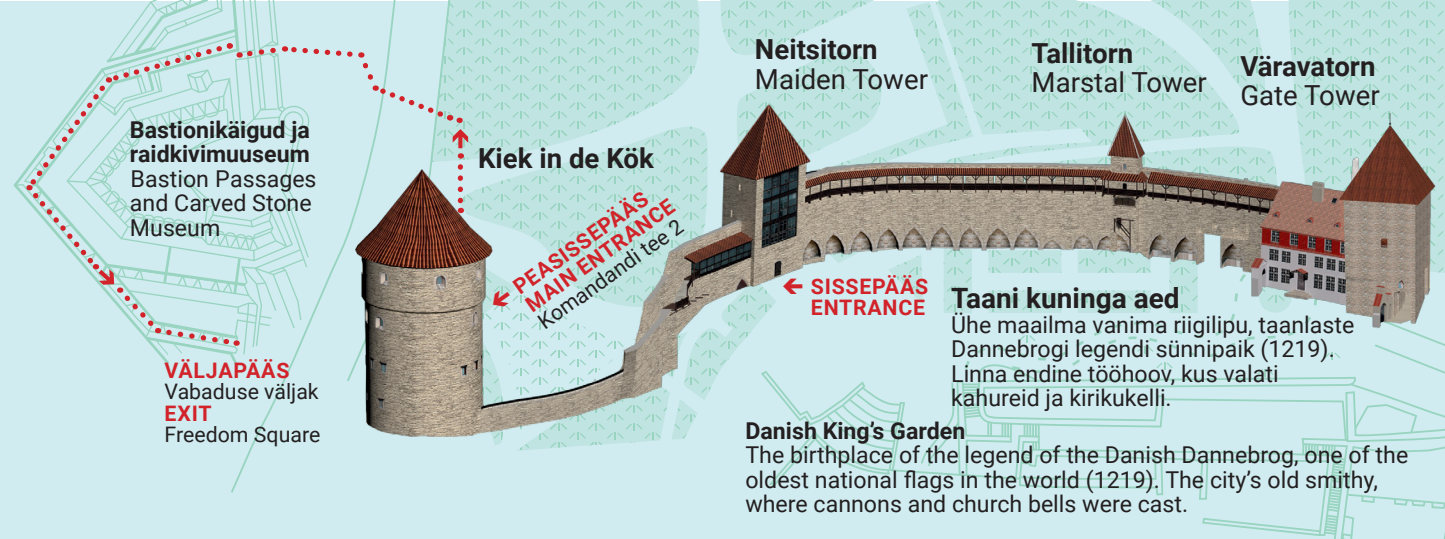

One of Tallinn's smallest towers, this much-feared dungeon also served as a lookout tower.

V  ravatorn (1454)

Toompea ja all-linna ajalooline   hendaja, v  ravatorn, millega seostuvad Tallinna kuulsamad kummituslood.

Gate Tower

The gate tower marks the historical connection between Toompea and the Lower Town and evokes some of Tallinn's most famous ghost stories.

Bastionik  igud ja raidkivimuuseum (1710)

Ingeri bastioni maa-alused k  igud pakuvad p  nevust ja salap  ra. Bastionik  ikudes asuv raidkivimuuseum tutvustab Tallinna kiviraidurite meistriteoseid.

Bastion Passages and Carved Stone Museum

The underground passages of the Inger bastion offer excitement and mystery. The Carved Stone Museum in the bastion passages introduces the masterpieces of Tallinn's stone carvers.
